Overview

"Leaders of Tomorrow" is a 14-day international youth exchange organized under the Erasmus+ KA151-YOU accreditation. The project is designed for young people from Armenia, Georgia, Greece, Bulgaria, and Poland who wish to develop their leadership potential, build a strong personal brand, and actively engage in civic initiatives.

This program focuses on leadership skills, personal branding, public speaking, digital presence, and community engagement. Through a variety of interactive workshops, team projects, cultural exchanges, and outdoor activities, participants will gain practical tools to become leaders and changemakers in their local and international communities.
